"On Jan 24th 2011, as I was spending time with the Lord, the word of the Lord came to me, to encourage the body of Christ so I share it with you ,pray you will be encouraged by this .

"You are not alone, My rod and My staff will comfort you as many walk through the shadows of the valley of death, nations are being separated in this time, sheep nations from goat nations, and due to that the hearts of many men shall fail them, but My eyes are upon the righteous and my ears are attentive to their prayers. Distresses that mount up as dominos shall not be able to keep you from the love of God. His faithfulness endures for ever. I have yet to call forth My True Prophets to stand and release My hidden mysteries. I am mounting them up as I speak, As eagles with eyes to see what I will and am doing, Nations are rising against nations for the day of the battle, you are not at a brink of a desert, but at a brink of a river, and those who choose the life of obedience will cross over with great ease. Obedience is the gateway to freedom, and peace in Me. My sheep hear My voice, I will make a way and smooth road in the desert, trust Me with all your heart, obedience and Trust will be the lifter of your head. This will cause you to stretch out your arms to Me".

Let me share this also with you, we are about to enter the most trying days; yet the most triumphant days, as we continue in the finish work of Christ. Pressing on to the High Calling of God, we can know for sure that we are about to meet " The Living God"

Matt; 24:12.13 says' Because of the abundance of evil, the love of many will grow cold, But who so ever will pursue until the end will live. And this Gospel of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony of all nations and then the end will come'

Vs 44 encourages us to be ready. Lets keep our lamps ablaze with the Kingdom of God's purposes and stay in obedience, to His plans. Above all lets keep the Love of Christ flowing .

Blessings
