

As I was pondering on the word this week, my thoughts carried me to thinking, how many people spend so much time setting Goals and Aims for their lives to become and achieve things, so they can feel they have accomplished something And at the same time I heard a voice in my Heart saying 'Let love be your Aim and your Goal'.

I opened my Bible to 1Cor 13:1-8, we have all read this so many times, let's look at it one more time "Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. And though I have gifts of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing. Love suffers long and is kind, love does not envy, love does not parade itself, is not puffed up, does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil. Does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth, bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail, whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away."

When I read this scripture, and my heart broke, that the Church has totally overlooked this scripture, there is very thing going on in the body that Paul instructed us not to do, it was were some of these thing went on in leadership only, but today it is more in the lives of the believers, many are walking in pride, and hatred. The devil has done a great job, by robbing the Love out of the hearts of the people, and many are in a place of iniquity in their lives. Matt;24:12 says "Because the iniquity will abound the love of many will grow cold."

We need to learn to love more, and learn to forgive quickly, because the days coming ahead will bring more trials, and if we don't train ourselves now, it will be difficult to face the times. It is time to seek Him as you have never sought after Him before-Seek His wisdom. Learn to love unselfishly and as you glorify Him, in your ways and actions, your love will grow and you will know no end of His love. Jesus said, they will know Me by the love that you have for one another, Today our witnesses about making Him know through our love is not there.

Don't worry if you wish to redeem what has been lost, just start loving more, see the Lord moves through love, but He also judges through love, so in order to fulfill His purposes in our lives, we have to sincere in our walk of love with Him, because He is love. We have to learn to fear Him more than our brother or sister, and then we will walk in true love.

We have heard that in the end times darkness will increase, so will the Glory increase, I believe that hatred will increase also, so will true love rise up. The enemy knows what a great harvest of souls is on the horizon, so he has unleashed a great hatred on the earth, see only the love of the Lord will diffuse this and bring forth truth. Only true love will set the captives free that have been bound by the enemy. Love will conquer the greatest of darkness and will break open the hardest of hearts.

When we love, we destroy hatred, we see true faith rise up, and mercy comes forth, Faith will rise up as we trust in Him and see people throw His eyes. As we are stepping in to the end times, a great shaking is happening all around us, and it is important for us to become one with Him, it is time to let go of what we want, and focus on what He wants. We need to “Be watch full and pray every day, seek to love, remain in faith, lean on Him and trust Him.

Remember, Faith sees through His eyes, what cannot be seen through yours. The battle we are in is not natural, but is supernatural. We need to walk in the spirit, to overcome, Let you tell you, you are not here by chance, but for a time such as this, so seek His wisdom in every step and it will be found.

I want to encourage you today” Let love be your Aim’

Let’s look at Romans 13; 8-10

“Owe no one anything except to love one another, for he who loves another fulfilled the law. For the commandments, ‘you shall not commit adultery,’ ‘you shall not murder,’ ‘you shall not steal.’” You shall not bear false witness,” “you shall not covet,” and if any other commandment, are all summed up in this saying, namely.” You shall love your neighbor as yourself,”” Love does no harm to a neighbor: therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

Colossians 3:12-14” Therefore, as elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering, bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another, even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection”

We hear so many teaching today, but the new covenant talks about loving God and one another. So love is fulfillment of the law as Paul writes. It is the one commandment Jesus has left us – without it- whatever we say in His name is worthless- it does not matter whatever our gifts, or prophesy, or biblical knowledge we have, but if we have no love, everything is nothing. So live to Love.
